

ARCO Liquid Filling Facility

Bayport, New York

Bell performed the installation of process piping and equipment in a gel cap manufacturing facility related to the vitamin and dietary supplement industry.

The project includes six reactor tanks with agitators, twenty pumps, and ten product storage tanks. The fully documented orbitally welded stainless steel piping systems included compressed air, process vacuum, chilled water, sanitary product line, nitrogen and condensate lines to be used in the manufacturing of product.

Client NBTY Construction Group

Contract Value $2 million

Contract Type..... Firm Fixed Price

Architect/Engineer..... Lizardos Engineering Associates