

FBI Site Development

Clarksburg, West Virginia

The project required moving two million cubic yards of earth with 50-foot cuts and 60-foot fills, construction of a bentonite earth dam, preparation of six building sites with parking lots for 800 vehicles and construction of two roads to site boundaries. Site utilities included 15 miles of pipe and conduit for electrical ductbank, water, sewer, and storm drain systems.

Client Federal Bureau of Investigation
Owner Federal Bureau of Investigation
Contract Value $20 million
Contract Type..... Firm Fixed Price
Architect/Engineer..... Smith, Hinchman & Grylls Associates, Inc.