

Niagara Mohawk Nine Mile Point Unit One

Lycoming, New York

Bell performed multiple mechanical systems contracts including project management, construction engineering, QA/QC and craft supervision.

The company's work included the installation of stainless steel radioactive waste holding tanks, a remotely operated target system for drum storage, large and small bore piping, drum storage racks, ventilation system modifications and in-service inspection and outage support.

Client Niagara Mohawk Power Corporation

Owner Niagara Mohawk Power Corporation

Contract Value $3 million