

Rochester District Heating

Rochester, New York

Bell had Design/Build responsibility for the complete renovation of this existing Fossil Power Plant.

The project included extensive demolition and restructuring of an existing facility. Installations included two 150,000 lb/hr and one 50,000 lb/hr gas fired boilers, condensing economizers, 800 KW generator, and all power piping and electrical distribution system.

*Client Rochester District Heating
Cooperative*

*Owner Rochester District Heating
Cooperative*

Contract Number..... NA

Contract Value $4.2 million

Contract Type..... Firm Fixed Price

Architect/Engineer..... Bell Engineering