

SUNY Buffalo School of Medicine

Buffalo, New York

Bell performed the mechanical construction for this 240,000 square-foot, eight-story medical laboratory building with over 60 laboratory rooms.

The work consisted of all HVAC equipment, piping and controls and building plumbing, which included standard systems, as well as lab gases and special waste disposal systems.

Client Suffolk Construction Company

Owner SUNY Construction Fund

Contract Value $12 million

Contract Type..... Firm Fixed Price

Architect/Engineer..... Hellmuth Obata + Kassebaum